Saco Bay Artists Newsletter

From Our Co-Chairs

Greetings to everyone. Given that we had no meeting in January and then had to cancel the February meeting due to bad weather, it seems forever since we've all been together. Let's hope the weather is good for our March meeting on Monday, March 11 at Noon-2PM. Robert Gibson will be doing an acrylic still-life demonstration. All are welcome.

Although we did not have a February meeting, many people emailed me with their thoughts on the proposed gallery in Ocean Park. The unanimous response was NOT to pursue this proposal.

Please remember the following:

Dues are due. Dues paid after February 15 are $35

<http://www.sacobayartists.org/join.php>

The show application is at our website

www.sacobayartists.org

and also attached with this newsletter. Show entry fees have been increased

- members $55/show and non-members $90/show. Applications are due June 1, 2013.

Charge those creative juices and design a button for the Ocean Park button design contest. Details are in the newsletter. Design is due to Kathy by Monday, April 7.

We hope everyone is able to use this hunkering down kind of weather to create lots of wonderful art work.

Kathy and Jen

Annual Ocean Park "Button Design Contest"

Button, Button. Who's Got the Best Button Design?

From Jerry Gosselin, Executive Director of the Ocean Park Association
It is that time of year again when the Saco Bay Artists are given the opportunity to design a button for July 4th. They are a hit every year! So, would you please pass along this information to get the ball rolling?

Here are the details:

- The buttons are made available at the July 4th parade (and afterward in the OPA office) for a donation to the Ocean Park Association.
- The design should have some sort of July 4th theme and also have something to do with Ocean Park. The design needs to include "Ocean Park Association" and "2013".
- The buttons are 3" in diameter, so the artwork should be within a circle. The successful artwork in the past was 6-7" in diameter and was scanned to produce an electronic file used to create the buttons.
- The deadline for submission of designs to SBA (Kathy Angel Lee) is at the April business meeting on Monday, April 8, 2013. The Ocean Park Association will keep the winning artwork and will return the other submissions.

Editor's Ramblings

Short month, so short on words...very pleased to have been able to enjoy Richard Blanco's poetry at Merrill on the 26th!...VERY thrilled that my photograph "Veil of Sea Smoke" was selected as a Finalist for the January Betterphoto.com's photograph contest!...life has pretty much returned to "normal" on the home front...beginning to REALLY dislike snow!...wishing to be "independently wealthy" so I could spend ALL of my time learning about art and other hobbies...SO looking forward to the Summer SBA shows!...THINK SPRING!!!
