March, 2019, Newsletter

From the editor:

March winds have already begun ending the month of February. But take heart. My daffodils are showing their green tips up against the South side of the foundation. Birds are beginning to gather. Spring is surely on the way.

Susan Hanna <artist@sehstudios.com> is setting up a FaceBook page for SBA. She would like pictures of work, events you're in, other activities. You can send them to her at her email address. Thanks. Once it is set up, if you could share it on your FB page if you have one, that would be great.

Please send me information on any way you are showing your work so I can make note of it in our newsletter. Elsie Reese will be showing some of her art at the Dyer Library for the month of March.

Website: No website? Members can send four to six images at least 600px by 800px and include name, size, medium, year and price/nfs. Send these via email to Stephen at mayaway@maine.rr.com.
