Message from our Co-Chairs

Hello,

And the winner is.....Evelyn Moreshead won the Ocean Park Association button design. Her design will be featured on the buttons available for the Fourth of July celebration in Ocean Park. Congratulations, Evelyn!

A big thank you to all who donated work for the Food Pantries Silent Auction.

Although I wasn't able to attend, I understand there was a good turnout. The volunteers at the Food Pantry were extremely appreciative of all the artwork that was donated.

We're fast approaching the deadline for our show entries. Do get them in soon to Jen Boillard.

We've also learned about another exhibit opportunity in Old Orchard Beach. Peter Mourmouras (The Tax Doctor) on Saco Avenue will be opening a consignment shop for arts and crafts. Commission will be 40%. Contact Peter directly at 934-3997 about exhibiting.

Remember that Claudette Gamache will be our guest artist at the May 13 meeting from Noon-2PM. Hope to see many of you there.

Kathy and Jen

In Memoriam—George Yianakes

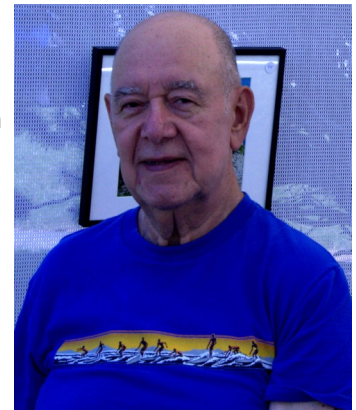

We are very sorry to say that our SBA friend and fellow artist recently lost his battle for life after a fall. In addition to being a long time Saco Bay Artists member George was also an active member of the Portland Camera Club.

He was born in Somerville, MA and was a retired teacher and basketball coach from North Reading

High. He was also a veteran of the Korean War. His obituary was published in the Boston Globe

Click here to view his obituary

You will be missed, dear friend and artist! You were one of a kind!

Editor's Ramblings

Well, here we are—deep into the Spring season and still waiting for our “warm weather month’s” to appear! Guess they will be here soon, along with the tourists...who will be visiting our Summer Shows and being wowed by our collective artistic talents...at least that’s how I am planning on it happening!

I must mention how sad I am about George’s passing—last summer he offered me a great tip about how best to hold a camera to take as steady a shot as possible...while I didn’t know him well, I do know that he was very special and will remember him fondly.

Life has been getting “in the way” of my art and the SBA newsletter production...am going to plan on getting back on track for timely delivery starting next month...thanks so much for your patience! Happy Spring!!
